About Stephen Fite

Stephen is an award-winning musician/writer whose albums have received eighteen nationally recognized honors. Suitable for the classroom, car or living room, his upbeat brand of children's music has been delighting students, teachers and parents around the nation for three decades.

About Stephen's Concerts & Music

Stephen's shows have been described as an "interactive celebration of music and learning." Geared for ages 3 to 8 years, Stephen combines a solid hour of music and movement with generous helpings of rhythm, repetition and rhyme to create a festive buffet of entertainment and fun. He has given over 1,150 concerts for over 900,000 children in twelve states since the mid 80's. The music used in his shows is written and recorded by Stephen and is educational. In fact, it is likely that some of his music is used in your child's classroom each day.
